To Whom It May Concern:

I am pleased to comment on the character of Mrs. Vicki Lee.

Mrs. Lee has been part of the Love, Peace and Happiness Family Ministry for over five (5) years and was faithful to our ministry until God directed her to begin a Pastoral Ministry. I was introduced to Mrs. Lee over nine years ago and she has exemplified exceptional character since the time of our first meeting. I have great respect for her.

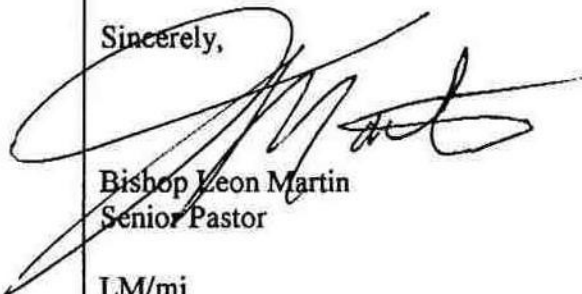

She has made a very important contribution to our church while serving as President of our Redeemed Women's Ministry for two years for both of our churches in Rialto and Downey, CA. Mrs. Lee is the President of Saints of Value in which men and women can obtain ministerial training to enhance their personal ministry and training in other areas of ministry. I have had the pleasure of speaking at some of her training sessions and have observed the sincerity of her involvement and the involvement of others with this training school.

I admire her tenacity to want to achieve more for her life through continued educational classes. I can assure you that Mrs. Lee is a model citizen, a good mother, a hard worker, creative, intelligent, well organized and cooperative and would be a great asset to any organization.

I recommend Mrs. Lee highly as a woman of trustworthy character.

Please let me know if there is anything further I can offer. Our church office number is (562) 806-9890.

Sincerely,

Bishop Leon Martin
